The Meal: "A Fellowship Feast at the Foot of the Castle"

Menu:
"Samwise's Hearth-Baked Bread"
Description: A crusty, rustic loaf of sourdough bread, baked fresh with rosemary and sea salt. Serve with local olive oil and balsamic vinegar for dipping.
LOTR Connection: Samwise was known for his love of cooking and his reliable bread.

Modesto Connection: Sourdough is a California staple, and rosemary thrives in the climate.

"Boromir's Beef & Barley Stew"
Description: A rich, hearty beef and barley stew, slow-cooked with root vegetables (carrots, potatoes, parsnips) and a touch of red wine.
LOTR Connection: Boromir was a strong warrior, and this stew represents hearty, sustaining food.

Modesto Connection: Beef and root vegetables are readily available in the Central Valley.

"Elven Salad of Summer Greens"
Description: A light and refreshing salad of mixed baby greens, strawberries (in season), toasted almonds, and a lemon-honey vinaigrette.

LOTR Connection: Elves are known for their light, ethereal food.

Modesto Connection: Strawberries and almonds are major crops in the region.

"Hobbit Apple Cake"
Description: A warm, spiced apple cake with a crumble topping, served with a dollop of whipped cream.

LOTR Connection: Hobbits love their desserts, especially apple pie and cake.

Modesto Connection: Apples are grown in nearby orchards.

"Mead of the Shire"
Description: A lightly sparkling, honey-sweetened mead, served cold.

LOTR Connection: Mead is a traditional drink in Middle-earth.

Modesto Connection: Honey is produced in the region, and mead is growing popularity as a craft beverage.

Presentation:
Serve the meal on rustic wooden platters and bowls.
Use candles and warm lighting to create a cozy atmosphere.
Play soft, ambient or Middle-earth inspired music in the background.
This meal captures the rustic charm of the castle setting with the fresh, local ingredients of Modesto and a touch of Middle-earth magic. It's a feast fit for a fellowship, or anyone looking for a hearty and satisfying meal.
